

Vigil Mobile Terms of Service

These terms and conditions ("Terms") govern your ("user", "you" or "your") subscription to and use of the Vigil Health Solutions Inc. ("Vigil") mobile application (the "App"), as well as any Vigil Content (as defined below) originating from, generated or accessed through the use of the App. These Terms constitute a legal contract between you and Vigil. Please read these Terms carefully and in their entirety. Clicking "I AGREE" or using the App (including any changes that we may subsequently make), other than to review these Terms, signifies your consent to be legally bound by and to comply with these Terms. If you do not agree with these Terms, you may not access or use the App or any Content. If you are an individual accepting these terms on behalf of another party, such as an employer, you personally agree that you are authorized to agree to these terms on that party's behalf.

The App is provided for convenience only, and may be used solely in conjunction with a Vigil Integrated Care or Vigil Essential Care Management system (each, a "System") for which there is a valid license, and pursuant to which you are an authorized user. The license to use the System may be held by your employer or other third party (the "System Licensee"), and additional terms governing your use of the System may be contained in the license agreement between Vigil and the System Licensee. References in these Terms to "you" include both the authorized user and the System Licensee. In addition to any other rights that Vigil may have, your use of the App may be suspended or terminate at any time if the license to use the System expires, is suspended, or is terminated for any reason, including non-payment of the applicable System license fees.

The App is provided for convenience only. THE APP IS NOT DESIGNED FOR, AND SHOULD NOT BE USED IN EMERGENCY SITUATIONS. IN CASE OF EMERGENCY, PLEASE USE LOCAL 911 SERVICES.

If the App has been distributed through the Apple® App Store®, you expressly acknowledge and agree that (i) neither Apple Inc. nor any of its subsidiaries are parties to these Terms, and shall not have any liability hereunder, including with respect to maintenance and support, warranty obligations, product liability claims, claims that the App fails to conform with any applicable legal or regulatory requirements, claims under consumer protection and similar legislation, intellectual property rights violations, or any other matter arising under these Terms or in connection with your possession or use of the App, and (ii) Apple Inc. and its subsidiaries are third party beneficiaries of these Terms and, upon your acceptance of these Terms, Apple will have the right (and will be deemed to have accepted the right) to enforce these Terms against you as a third party beneficiary hereof. Further, you acknowledge and agree that, as between them, Vigil, and not Apple, is solely responsible for the App and for any Vigil Content (as defined below).

These Terms were last updated on May 10, 2019. At any time and for any reason, we may update, change, suspend or terminate any aspect of these Terms or the App. We will endeavour to provide advance notice of any changes. Please consult these Terms each time that you use the App. Your continued use of the App for 30 days or more following the posting of changes to these Terms or the implementation of any change to the App will mean that you accept and agree to those changes.

You will not remove, alter or conceal any trademark or other proprietary rights notices incorporated into or accompanying the App, any Vigil Content or any other information or materials accessed through the System.

Equipment and Data Connections

Use of the App is dependent upon your use of a supported mobile device and Internet access which are not supplied by Vigil, as well as on the proper operation of the System by the System Licensee. Accordingly, the quality, availability and security of the App may be affected by factors beyond Vigil’s control. Without limitation, Vigil will not be liable for any inability to access or use the App or the System, or for any data security breaches, resulting from the unavailability of network or Internet access, from any failure to maintain or secure Internet connections, power outages, or due to any failure of the System that does not result from Vigil’s breach of its agreement with the System Licensee. You are solely responsible for your use of the App and for obtaining, maintaining, securing and paying for all communications services, mobile devices, and other equipment and services required to access and use the System, the App and any Data. The terms of your agreement with your mobile network provider and other third party service providers may apply when using the App. You must comply with all third party terms when using the App, and you will be solely responsible for any use that is in violation of those terms.
